

Hotel Rescue Team and Individual Response

NAME _____ | DATE _____ | PERIOD _____

Part 1: My role evidence

Assigned crisis: ☐ A ☐ B ☐ C

My role: _____

Two facts my role needs before acting:

1. _____

2. _____

One requirement my role must protect:

My first useful action:

Information or help I need from another role:

What I can honestly communicate now:

Part 2: Team evidence and individual transfer

Complete the team solution in Find Your Future p. 118. Then record the evidence that belongs to you.

My team's crisis: ☐ A ☐ B ☐ C

One requirement our response protected: _____

Three roles with different actions are recorded on FYF p. 118: ☐

One statement our team could honestly communicate without making an unverified promise:

Who follows through, and what does that worker check?

READ ANOTHER RESPONSE OR THE TEACHER MODEL

Read another team's response to a different crisis.

One strong move they used:

One risk or unanswered question:

How would the same verify-protect-coordinate-communicate process help a small catering company, restaurant, or event-planning business?

Words: verify = check what is true · protect = keep a requirement from being ignored · coordinate = connect actions · follow through = confirm the plan happened

Complete frame: This process would help a _____ business because the owner coordinates _____. The owner would first verify _____, then _____.

Done: ☐ role evidence ☐ protected requirement ☐ three role actions on FYF p. 118 ☐ factual message ☐ individual transfer
